SYNOPSIS

"He tore apart all scheduled and routine network around. He had seen many lives perish, unwanted. Keeping the accounts of life unfinished, leaving behind everything ---- even his mind ---- he came out free in the open." "ADHORA" has evolved from a nascent creation "MUKTOPURUSH", by none other than "NEELLOHIT". Unveiling a normal urban life, the story revolves around a wild innocence nourished by untiring efforts of an individual. The entire play had been skilfully wrapped up by a tranquil sheathing of illumination created by Badal Das complemented with a very soothing stagecraft, a vibrant script and direction by Prithunandan Ghose.
